A new birth. When one becomes a child of God, he has a new spiritual birth. He is a new, different creature.

“Jesus answered and said unto him, Verily, verily, I say unto thee, Except a man be born again, he cannot see the kingdom of God.” John 3:3

“Being born again, not of corruptible seed, but of incorruptible, by the word of God, which liveth and abideth for ever.” I Peter 1: 23 Also: II Cor. 5:17.

A new joy, happiness, and purpose. Being born again is wonderful. It comes with new chances in life with great joy and happiness.

“O sing unto the LORD a new song: sing unto the LORD, all the earth. Sing unto the LORD, bless his name; shew forth his salvation from day to day. Declare his glory among the heathen, his wonders among all people. For the LORD is great, and greatly to be praised: he is to be feared above all gods” Psalms 96:1-3 Also: Psalms 40:3, 98:1.

A new heart. God gives, along with salvation, a new heart that has new desires, purposes, and hopes.

“A new heart also will I give you, and a new spirit will I put within you: and I will take away the stony heart out of your flesh, and I will give you an heart of flesh.”

Ezekiel 36:26

A new outlook. Life is seen differently. When one is saved, educated from the Word of God, and obedient to it, life looks a lot different. Activities and actions of the past now may appear contrary to God’s commands and harmful rather than “fun.” The “old, dead” Bible now becomes alive and helpful.

“Thou hast heard, see all this; and will not ye declare it? I have shewed thee new things from this time, even hidden things, and thou didst not know them.”

Isaiah 46: 6

A new, changed life (a new mind). Along with other new blessings comes the “mind of Christ” which thinks much differently than before the new birth.

“And have put on the new man, which is renewed in knowledge after the image of him that created him:” Colossians 3:10

Also: Ephesians 4:22-27.

A new day filled with second chances and other opportunities. Just as a new day brings fresh opportunities and expectations, God gives the born-again soul a second chance in life.

“It is of the LORD’S mercies that we are not consumed, because his compassions fail not. They are new every morning: great is thy faithfulness.” Lam. 3:22-23

A new testament. A new covenant. A “testament” is a document declaring the will and desires of a person. The New Christians should avoid being pooch-lipped and sad. They should do their best not to display looks of hopelessness and despair seen on the faces and in the lives of unbelievers because:

1. We are on God’s winning side no matter what happens around or to us! We should have peace and be comforted!

“But thanks be to God, which giveth us the victory through our Lord Jesus Christ.”

I Corinthians 15:57

“For whatsoever is born of God overcometh the world: and this is the victory that overcometh the world, even

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.”

Matthew 5:16

If we don't show the world the godly way, who will?

our faith. 5 Who is he that overcometh the world, but he that believeth that Jesus is the Son of God?” I John 5:4-5
“These things I have spoken unto you, that in me ye might have peace. In the world ye shall have tribulation: but be of good cheer; I have overcome the world.”

John 16:33

“Nay, in all these things we are more than conquerors through him that loved us.”

Romans 8:37

Living a biblical lifestyle is undoubtedly the old way — the way much of mankind has lived for over 6,000 years. Living that way may be “old-fashioned,” but there are many new things that obeying and living for the Lord can offer.

Here are some of the new things God still gives and desires all to have and experience:

2. Believers can be victorious here on Earth, no matter their situation. One day, however, we will be in a place the unsaved will never experience — Heaven!

“For God so loved the world, that he gave his only begotten Son, that whosoever believeth in him should not perish, but have everlasting life.”

John 3:16

“He that believeth on the Son hath everlasting life: and he that believeth not the Son shall not see life; but the wrath of God abideth on him.”

John 3:36

“He that overcometh shall inherit all things; and I will be his God, and he shall be my son. 8 But the fearful, and unbelieving, and the abominable, and murderers, and whoremongers, and sorcerers, and idolaters, and all liars, shall have their part in the lake which burneth with fire and brimstone: which is the second death.” Rev. 21:7

3. We must show the world that, although we are troubled by the sin surrounding us and circumstances we may battle, we have confidence that the Lord is in control! “And the peace of God, which passeth all understanding, shall keep your hearts and minds through Christ Jesus.”

Philippians 4:7

“Peace I leave with you, my peace I give unto you: not as the world giveth, give I unto you. Let not your heart be troubled, neither let it be afraid.” John 14:27 Also: Col. 3:15.

4. We have hope. The unsaved do not!

“Now the God of hope fill you with all joy and peace in believing, that ye may abound in hope, through the power of the Holy Ghost.” Romans 15:13 “Rejoicing in hope; patient in tribulation; continuing instant in prayer;” Rom. 12:12 Also: Isa. 40:31.

5. We should represent God’s blessing that the world should see. May our example be a godly, encouraging one.

“O give thanks unto the LORD, for he is good: for his mercy endureth for ever. 2 Let the redeemed of the LORD say so, whom he hath redeemed from the hand of the enemy;” Psa. 107:1-2

“Let no man despise thy youth; but be thou an example of the believers, in word, in conversation, in charity, in spirit, in faith, in purity.” I Timothy 4:12

“Be ye followers of me, even as I also am of Christ.” I Corinthians 11:1 Also: Phil. 4:9.

6. Our testimony must be one of peace, victory, and godliness, not sadness and without hope, as the unsaved often display.

“Let your light so shine before men, that they may see your good works, and glorify your Father which is in heaven.” Matthew 5:16

“Come and hear, all ye that fear God, and I will declare what he hath done for my soul.” Psalm 66:16 Also: Luke 12:8 .

7. God loves us!

“And hope maketh not ashamed; because the love of God is shed abroad in our hearts by the Holy Ghost which is given unto us.” Romans 5:5

“Nor height, nor depth, nor any other creature, shall be able to separate us from the love of God, which is in Christ Jesus our Lord.” Rom. 8:39 Also: I John 3:1, II Cor. 13:11, Eph. 3:19.

Be a shining Christian. You may be the only exposure to Christianity others know. Is your testimony a bright, godly beacon that others desire to follow, or is your example further evidence to observing unbelievers that being a Christian does not change anything?

Testament God gave man is not only part of the Bible, but it is His will and the new covenant (commitments or promises) He made with man. It tells of God’s will for man in this church age. “And he took the cup, and gave thanks, and gave it to them, saying, Drink ye all of it; For this is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many for the remission of sins.” Mat. 26:27-28

“And he said unto them, This is my blood of the new testament, which is shed for many.” Mark 14: 24

A new world. One day, God will destroy this world and create a new one.

“For, behold, I create new heavens and a new earth: and the former shall not be remembered.” Isaiah 65:7

“And I saw a new heaven and a new earth: for the first heaven and the first earth were passed away; and there was no more sea.” Revelation 21:1 Also II Pet. 3:3.

“I can’t help thinking of the old woman, when the civil war started, who started out with a poker in her hand. When asked what she would do with it, she said, “I can’t do much with it, but I can show which side I’m on.” My friend, even if you can’t do much for the cause of Christ, you can show the world whose side you are on.” — Author Unknown
