A Touch on His Shoulder

C. E. Macartney

On February 26, 1844, a major disaster occurred in our Navy. The Princeton, the most powerful warship of that day, was taking members of Congress and government officials down the Potomac.

On board were the president of the United States, and the secretaries of State and Navy. For the entertainment of the guests the great gun on the Princeton, called the Peacemaker, was fired. At the second discharge the gun burst, killing the Secretary of State, the Secretary of the Navy, and a number of others.

Senator Thomas Benton of Missouri was standing near it when a friend laid a hand on his shoulder just before the gun was fired. Benton turned away to speak with him when, much to his annoyance, the secretary of the Navy, Gilmore, elbowed his way into his place. At that moment, the gun was fired and Gilmore was killed.

That singular providence had a great impression upon Benton. He was a man of bitter feuds and quarrels, and recently had a fierce quarrel with Daniel Webster. After his escape from death on the Princeton, Benton sought reconciliation with Webster. He said to him, "It seemed to me,

What God Knows About You

Bill Brinkworth

"Casting all your care upon him; for he careth for you." I Peter 5:7

God knows about your location!

"Am I a God at hand, saith the LORD, and not a God afar off? Can any hide himself in secret places that I shall not see him? saith the LORD. Do not I fill heaven and earth? saith the LORD."

Jeremiah 23:23-24

Although the context is about the last days, the principle applies: "Though they dig into hell, thence shall mine hand take them; though they climb up to heaven, thence will I bring them down: And though they hide themselves in the top of Carmel, I will search and take them out thence; and though they be hid from my sight in the bottom of the sea, thence will I command the serpent, and he shall bite them." Amos 9:2-3

When Every Choir Member Was Late

Author Unknown

On March 1, 1950, in Beatrice, Nebraska, the pastor went to church that Saturday afternoon to prepare for the evening choir practice. Most choir members would arrive between 7:15 to 7:30 PM. He then went home for a quick supper, was ready to return with his wife and daughter, when it was discovered the daughter's dress was soiled and needed a change which in turn must first be ironed. He would certainly be late for practice.

High school sophomore, Ladonna, had trouble with her geometry problems and had to stay to finish the problem. Usually, she would always be early for rehearsal.

Two sisters were ready to go to practice, but the car won't start. They called up the geometry girl to pick them up.

Mrs. Schuster, with a small daughter, would arrive at 7:20, but that night her aging mother needed her and so she dropped by her mother's, making her late also.

What God Knows...

He knows the condition of your body.

"Are not five sparrows sold for two farthings, and not one of them is forgotten before God? But even the very hairs of your head are all numbered. Fear not therefore: ye are of more value than many sparrows."

Luke 12:6-7

He knows what is unknown and unseen by you.

"He revealeth the deep and secret things: he knoweth what is in the darkness, and the light dwelleth with him."

Daniel 2:22

He knows what your needs are.

"But when ye pray, use not vain repetitions, as the heathen do: for they think that they shall be heard for their much speaking. Be not ye therefore like unto them: for your Father knoweth what things ye have need of, before ye ask him."

Matthew 6:7-8

He knows what's in your heart.

"And thou, Solomon my son, know thou the God of thy father, and serve him with a perfect heart and with a willing mind: for the LORD searcheth all hearts, and understandeth all the imaginations of the thoughts: if thou seek him, he will be found of thee; but if thou forsake him, he will cast thee off for ever."

I Chronicles 28:9

He knows what you're thinking.

"... And Jesus knew their thoughts, and said unto them, Every kingdom divided against itself is brought to desolation; and every city or house divided against itself shall not stand:"

Matthew 12:24-25

He knows who is His – who is saved.

"The Spirit itself beareth witness with our spirit, that we are the children of God:"

Romans 8:16

HE KNOWS ALL!

"For nothing is secret, that shall not be made manifest; neither any thing hid, that shall not be known and come abroad." Luke 8: 17

The Nick of Time

G. Campbell Morgan

I am never tired of pointing out that the Greek phrase translated, "in the time of need," is a colloquialism of which the "nick of time" is the exact equivalent "that we may have grace to help in the 'nick of time.'" Grace just when and where I need it.

You are attacked by temptation, and, at the moment of assault, you look to Him, and the grace is there to help in the "nick of time". No postponement of your petition until the evening hour of prayer, but there, man, there in the city street, with the flaming temptation in front of your. Turn to Christ with a cry for help, and the grace will be there in the "nick of time."

When Every Choir ...

Machinist Harry Ohl was going to take his two boys to choir practice, since his wife was away, but somehow started talking with someone and when he looked at his watch, it was already too late.

Pianist Marilyn Paul decided to come one-half an hour earlier, but after supper, she fell asleep and arrived barely on time.

Choir director and the mother of the pianist, Mrs. Paul, was late due to her daughter. She had tried unsuccessfully to wake her.

Two high school girls usually go together, but one was listening to the 7:00 radio program and broke their usual habit of promptness in order to listen to the end.

Stenographer Joyce Black, feeling "just plain lazy" stayed until the last possible minute. When she was ready to go, "it" happened.

At 7:25, the West Side Baptist Church blew up. Its roof crushed in and its walls fell down — due to leaking gas. All the choir members were late, which had never happened before. No one was hurt thanks to God's intervention.

"Thank You, Captain."

Gospel Herald

When Napoleon's horse ran away and a lowly soldier caught him, Napoleon said, "Thank you, Captain." The man at once packed his belongings, moved to the officers' quarters, and went to mess with them. The emperor had called him captain, and he was therefore an officer.

We are all miserable sinners, but when we receive Jesus Christ as our Saviour, He calls us sons of God (John 1:12). Let us then promptly pack our belongings and move into the higher life to which He has appointed us!

Mr. Webster, as if that touch on my shoulder was the hand of the Almighty stretched down there, drawing me away from what otherwise would have been instantaneous death. That one circumstance has changed the whole current of my thought and life, I feel that I am a different man, and I want, in the first place, to be at peace with all those with whom I have been so sharply at variance."
